

This is to acknowledge that Camila Enriquez
has successfully completed
APA Module 3: Incorporating Sources in APA with a score of 11 out of 12

Activity 1: Paraphrase or Direct Quote

Question	Submitted Response:
"A right-sided brain injury presents with left-sided weakness or paralysis, drooping of the face, headache, slurred speech, sensory changes, and difficulty with short-term memory or communication" (Singh, 2016, p. 49).	Correct it is a direct quote
The Thai honeybees clean the queen, and by doing so, they spread a chemical that helps the population stay healthy. As the queen ages, her ability to yield the chemical fades (Florio, 2012, p. 13).	Correct it is a paraphrase
"Moon cake contains abundant carbohydrates, fats, and proteins, and could be polluted by fungal spores ubiquitous in the air" (Zhen et al., 2017, p. 2147).	Correct it is a direct quote
According to Howe and Prochner (2012), early childhood educators tend to dismiss parents' involvement in their children's education.	Correct it is a paraphrase
Environmental factors are the physical or technological factors that affect practices, conditions and actions of individuals (Wurmstein et al., 2004, p. 12).	Correct it is a paraphrase

Activity 2: In-Text Citations

Question	Submitted Response:
Is the source cited correctly? Students have different learning styles, such as visual, auditory, and kinesthetic. When building activities, teachers should keep that in mind and	Correct it is cited correctly

Question	Submitted Response:
come up with different ways to engage students (Puig, 2018, para. 12).
Is the source cited correctly? Using humour is an effective method for coping with difficult situations. According to Boberson (2018), "Dad jokes are especially useful as they are cheesy and can evoke nostalgia. When it comes to dealing with life's challenges, a well-timed dad joke can provide temporary comfort".	Incorrect it is cited correctly
Is the source cited correctly? The Canadian government should ban jokes. Jokes do not serve a tangible purpose (Smith, 1982, para. 4), and they prevent workers from focusing on the task at hand. They are frivolous and a waste of time.	Correct it is not cited correctly
Is the source cited correctly? Cats and dogs are therapeutic partners; they can help pet owners work through certain issues. Chatting with a cat is a key strategy when it comes to getting rid of negative energy (Smith, n.d., para. 10). Cat and dog owners can discuss their days, worries, victories, or challenges. Chatting can be a great remedy!	Correct it is cited correctly
Is the source cited correctly? "Dressing in a velvet two-piece suit at work denotes strength, character, and efficiency" (Velvet suits, 1968, p. 89). By wearing a velvet two-piece suit, employees can secure promotions and raises.	Correct it is cited correctly
Is the source cited correctly? According to St.Denis (2018), dads are not alone in their humorous pursuits. Grandmothers can also send a room roaring with laughter whilst telling jokes. These types of jokes are called grandmother jokes (St.Denis, 2018, para. 15).	Incorrect it is cited correctly
Is the source cited correctly? According to Jones, Mousseau, and St. Pierre (2020), "the government's preventative will mitigate upcoming challenges" (p. 60).	Correct it is not cited correctly

6/20/2026